

NAAA Classes of Active Membership. As of 10/12/19

National Agricultural Aviation Association Bylaws require all Operator and Pilot members to also be members of a state/regional agricultural aviation association.

*The NAAA Membership runs from January 1st through December 31st regardless of date joined.
NAAA does not pro-rate memberships.*

ORGANIZATION MEMBER. State and regional associations composed primarily of agricultural aviators and agricultural aviation branches or divisions of state trade associations shall be known as Organization Members of NAAA with all the rights and privileges appertaining thereto in consideration of the satisfactory completion of the requirements for membership herein. The Organization Member as a legal entity has no voting privileges, but each Organization Member shall name an individual representing the Organization Member to serve on the Board of Directors, in the manner set forth in Article IV of these Bylaws.

OPERATOR COMPANY MEMBER. Any company that is an operator member or equivalent in a state or regional association, operating an agricultural aviation, single engine air tanker aerial fire-fighting, aerial forestry, and/or an aerial public health application business and holding a valid Federal Aviation Administration Part 137 Operating Certificate, or any Federal Aviation Administration Part that may supersede Part 137, and meets the requirements that are, or may be set forth at any time by federal or state law, may qualify for membership as an Operator Company Member with all the rights and privileges appertaining thereto in consideration of the satisfactory completion of the requirements for membership herein. Each Operator Company Member shall have voting rights and shall exercise those rights through an individual designated by the Operator Company Member (the "Designated Voting Member"). Current Lifetime Operator Company Members will be the Designated Voting Member with respect to the Operator Company Member with which he or she is affiliated.

AFFILIATED OPERATOR COMPANY MEMBER. Any individual, whether a business partner, stockholder, or employee, whose company is an Operator Company Member, as described above, may qualify for membership as an Affiliated Operator Company Member with all the rights and privileges appertaining thereto in consideration of the satisfactory completion of the requirements for membership herein. The Affiliated Operator Company Members shall have voting rights.

PILOT MEMBER. Any agricultural aviation, single engine air tanker aerial fire-fighting, aerial forestry, and/or an aerial public health application pilot, who is not an operator, and who is a member of a state or regional association, may qualify for membership as a Pilot Member with all the rights and privileges appertaining thereto in consideration of the satisfactory completion of the requirements for membership herein. The Pilot Members shall have voting rights.

AERIAL IMAGING MEMBER. Any individual or company using manned aircraft, satellites and/or unmanned aircraft systems to produce aerial images for crop-sensing, precision agriculture or other related purposes and that possess the necessary Federal Aviation Administration operating certificates to conduct such work, may qualify for membership as an Aerial Imaging Member with all the rights and privileges appertaining thereto, with the exception of holding office or voting, in consideration of the satisfactory completion of the requirements for membership herein.

ALLIED INDUSTRY MEMBER. Any industrial organization or firm closely allied to the agricultural aviation industry, such as, but not necessarily limited to, aircraft manufacturers, aircraft engine manufacturers, systems suppliers, fuel companies, insurance industry, and other industries which serve the agricultural aviation industry, may qualify for membership as an Allied Industry Member with all the rights and privileges appertaining thereto, in consideration of the satisfactory completion of the requirements for membership herein. Each Allied Industry Member shall have voting rights and shall exercise those rights through the Designated Voting Member named by the Allied Industry Member.

AFFILIATED ALLIED INDUSTRY MEMBER. Any individual whose firm is an Allied Industry Member of NAAA, as described above, may qualify for membership as an Affiliated Allied Industry Member with all the rights and privileges appertaining thereto in consideration of the satisfactory completion of the requirements for membership herein. The Affiliated Allied Industry Members shall have voting rights.

SUPPORT MEMBER. Any member's spouse, significant other or any individual interested in the promotion of NAAA objectives may qualify for membership as a Support Member with all the rights and privileges appertaining thereto, in consideration of the satisfactory completion of the requirements for membership herein. The Support Members shall have voting rights.

ASSOCIATE MEMBER. Any person interested in the promotion or welfare of agricultural aviation who does not meet the qualifications set forth in the Bylaws for another category of membership may qualify as an Associate Member with all the rights and privileges appertaining thereto, with the exception of holding office or voting, in consideration of the satisfactory completion of the requirements for membership herein.

INTERNATIONAL MEMBER. Any aerial application firm or pilot based beyond the borders of the United States may qualify as an International Member with all the rights and privileges appertaining thereto, with the exception of holding office or voting, in consideration of the satisfactory completion of the requirements for membership herein.
